TRAVEL GUIDE

CHICAGO ILLINOIS
Simply Magnificent
The Chicago and Illinois Tourist Office welcomes you with this special Travel Guide designed to help the international traveller plan the perfect holiday.

To help you identify where to start, we’ve separated the state into five regions, each delivering its own experience.

Comprehensive listings, which include descriptions, addresses and phone numbers, point out a variety of things to see and do. Shopping, for example, organises stores and boutiques by neighbourhood and state regions. Dining is categorised by cuisine, while Entertainment covers everything from blues bars and dance clubs to opera and theatre. Gardens, zoos, state parks and resorts are all listed under Leisure/Recreation. Museums/History lists important cultural institutions and historic sites. Architecture reveals notable landmarks throughout the state.

Remember, you can always visit gochicago.com for updated travel information on Illinois and Chicago.
Since its rise from the ashes of the Great Chicago Fire, the city of Chicago has picked itself up and never looked back. Today, this world-class city is internationally known for its unrivaled architecture, five-star cuisine, chic shopping and leading cultural institutions. Chicago also has a reputation as one of the friendliest and most walkable cities in the U.S., with a breathtaking lakefront that’s close to all the action.
Chicago is also known as a city of neighbourhoods, each with their own unique flavour. Shop designer boutiques and upscale retail centres on the stretch of North Michigan Avenue known as the Magnificent Mile®. The Loop is home to many of the city’s leading museums and theatres, along with great shopping on State Street. Explore unique stores, restaurants and nightlife that ranges from comedy to blues clubs in the Near North Side neighbourhoods of Streeterville, Old Town, the Gold Coast, Lincoln Park and Lakeview.

Hip stores and art galleries, edgy restaurants and trendy clubs populate River North, Bucktown and Wicker Park. Authentic ethnic shops and restaurants can be found in Greektown, Little Italy, Chinatown, the German enclave in Lincoln square and the Swedish community of Andersonville. South of downtown, the Hyde Park neighbourhood is home to the Museum of Science and Industry and the DuSable Museum of African-American History, as well as a number of African-American shops, restaurants and nightspots.
Explore Chicago Neighbourhoods

Discover the traditions, stories and people of Chicago with one of 17 different Chicago Neighbourhood Tours. You can book by phone, 312.742.1190, in person at the Shop at the Cultural Center, 77 E. Randolph St. or online by visiting the “Travel Tips” section on gochicago.com.
Illinois is known as the Land of Lincoln, thanks to Abraham Lincoln who worked his way from humble legislator to President of the United States. Today, Illinois is a study in diverse cultures and landscapes, from the cosmopolitan city of Chicago to the rolling green hills of Southern Illinois.
